AUTHORIZING LEGAL REPRESENTATION

Mr. MCCONNELL. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of S. Res. 286 which was submitted earlier today.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 286) to authorize legal representation in the United States of America v. Parviz Karim-Panahi.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. FRIST. Madam President, this resolution concerns representation by the Senate legal counsel of twenty-two members and three employees of the Committee on Armed Services and the chairman and ranking member and two employees of the Committee on Foreign Relations, who have been subpoenaed to provide testimony and produce documents in a criminal trial by a defendant charged with disrupting proceedings at a hearing of the Senate Committee on Armed Services in September 2003. These subpoenas, which were issued by the defendant on his own behalf, are not well taken. As the testimony and documents sought by these subpoenas are either irrelevant or cumulative of the testimony and evidence that will be offered at trial from other sources, evidence from these Senators and Senate employees is unnecessary. Moreover, the testimony and documents sought by the subpoenas as privileged under the Speech or Debate Clause of the Constitution.

This resolution would authorize the Senate Legal Counsel to represent the Senators and staff who have been subpoenaed by the defendant, as well as any other Members, officers, or employees who may be subpoenaed, in order to quash the subpoenas and protect the privileges of the Senate.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution be agreed to, the preamble be agreed to, the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table, and any statements relating to this matter be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.
